Action Taken Report of Academic session 2021-22

- 1. Mentor Mentee groups have been created for all classes so that students can share their problems with their mentor.
- 2. Faculty of some subjects are not available due to trasnsfer. In this regard, DGHE Panchkula, has been intimated about shortage of teachers. The college has been managing the lectures by inviting teachers from other colleges for the benefit of students.
- 3. To improve the Environment of the college, various activities have been undertaken and awareness campaigns regarding social issues, are organised from time to time.
- 4. Steps have been taken to improve the infrastructure by spending a grant of 1,17,3020 for the maintenance of labs.
- 5. 286 Books have been purchased in the library during the session 2021-22 and every year books are purchased according to the recommendation of faculty.
- 6. 37 faculty members attended FDP and other training programmes during the Academic session 2021-22 to enhance teaching learning process.
- 7. The survey showed that 92% (approximately) respondents quoted good supporting material provided by college as well as faculty members. Moreover sufficient facilities are available in library for learning material to the students.
- 8. During the Academic session 2021-22 the placement cell of the college, placed 22 students in different companies.
- 9. The fees structure of the college is as per govt. Norms.
- 10.College canteen will be constructed on second floor of new building out of Govt. grant. In this connection work is under progress.
 - 11. Every year cultural activities are held in the college. A large number of students participates in these activities and they also participate in Zonal youth fest, inter zonal youth fest. Ratnawali and other Distt. Level Cultural Competitions.
