

Government College for Women, Karnal organized an Online National Level Chemistry Quiz Competition to celebrate “Mole Day” on 23.10.2020. Quiz competitions play a vital role in all round development of students. These competitions amplify their knowledge and also help them to increase their self-confidence. The Quiz was intended to foster student’s interest in chemistry which was also the aim behind the creation of Mole Day too.

136 students of various colleges and universities across the country got registered for this competition. Under the able guidance of Principal, Dr. Anuradha Punia, the competition was convened by Dr. Ekta Arora, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry. Ms. Ankita Mann, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry was the co-convener. The results were declared on 26.10.2020. Alisha Sachdeva from UIPS, Panjab University, Chandigarh secured First position, while the second and the third positions were secured by Raghav from Mukund Lal National College, Yamunanagar and Aarzo from Government College for Women, Karnal respectively. The winners were rewarded with cash prizes and e-certificates. The participants who scored more than 80% in the Quiz were also given e-certificates.